

Strategic Plan

SCDPPPS

2012-2013

Message from the Director

This year's plan provides an operational document of the Department's Strategic Plan. Our core values are re-affirmed in our mission and value statements. It is these guiding principles that will lead us into the future. As we are ever evolving and creating new pathways to success, we must prioritize our goals, assess our needs, and evaluate the outcomes. I am committed to providing leadership and professional development for all staff, strengthening our community partnerships, and implementing new and innovative ideas.

Our Department's mission, vision, goals, strategies and other elements of this plan were envisioned for future growth and development. We conducted a self-assessment of our strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats, to re-define our organizational culture in a way that we believe will serve as a model across the nation..

As Director, I am committed to developing forward thinking and innovative strategies that are dedicated to reintegration initiatives for offenders, creating safer communities, and reducing recidivism. This is demonstrated through the development of Gender Based Training, re-entry initiatives like the work being done by our Community Resource Coordinators (CRC), and the opening of the Columbia Reentry Center,-I am especially excited about the results our CRC's are producing to help offenders find gainful employment. Our obligation to Prepare, Provide and Protect has been balanced by identifying and implementing best practices. Together, we have continued to pursue our vision of being a catalyst for change in the lives of our offenders, a force for public safety, a leader in victim services, and a responsible steward of public funds. With the implementation of evidenced-based practices to reduce recidivism.

This plan is designed to share with you the results of your recommendations; our strategic goals and strategies, and the actions we will need to take to realize our vision for our future....
